

Dear Business Partners,

Infini Asia in Bangkok and Matrix Travel in Prague, serving together as inbound and outbound partners, have recently formed a new division designed especially to facilitate the requirements of Asians traveling to Europe.

Through the services we provide, our customers can benefit during the planning phase of their trip to Europe from the local expertise and competence of our two agencies working together. Knowing that every journey begins with a personally designed itinerary, we put the time and utmost care into all of the preparations. Once in Europe, our customers can expect that every phase of their journey is monitored and well serviced.

Europe has now become a well established destination for Asian tourists, but it is undoubtedly in the right position to attract much greater interest from the Asian region in the near term future.

Our company markets to our clients some very unique travel opportunities that are not only within the destinations for which we are specialized, but also through selected certified partners in other parts of the world. Our dynamic and experienced professional team advises you with every program, from simple hotel reservation to a tour prepared according to your personal needs and lifestyle. We are specialists in the field of tailor made tours, business trips, motivational and incentive programs, workshops, and training programs. We will also provide you with air tickets to all countries around the world at the lowest rates available, together with transport and transit services that include renting a car to transportation via a luxurious limousine. The incoming division provides complete incoming services for foreign clients traveling to Europe. The outgoing division prepares classical tours, business trips and makes preparations and for trips to those exotic and distant countries.

Should you require further information or a quotation, please do not hesitate to visit our web site www.cometoczech.com or send us an email. It will be a pleasure for us to prepare an offer to you at a very competitive price.
